

Kearney & Company named one of 2015's Best for Vets Employers by *Military Times

Alexandria, VA - April 14th, 2015 - Kearney & Company, P.C. (Kearney) was recently ranked by Military Times as one of the 74 best employers for veterans in its 6th annual survey. The survey contains over 80 questions and analyzes a company's efforts to connect with veterans and foster an environment for success. The rankings are published in full in the April issue of Military Times EDGE magazine, the premier publication for military transition, and online at MilitaryTimes.com.

Roughly 15% of Kearney's workforce is composed of veterans and our main corporate culture goal is to be a "Best Place to Work" for all of our employees. Kearney has extensive traditional and nontraditional benefits programs, including a daycare discount, college savings program, service recognition program, and health/fitness benefits. Because of our focus on employees' wellbeing and happiness, we have the highest retention rates within our industry.

Founded in 1985, Kearney is the largest Certified Public Accounting (CPA) firm dedicated to providing auditing, accounting, and consulting services exclusively to the Federal Government. Kearney's staff of more than 500 employees operates from its Alexandria, Virginia headquarters and satellite offices across the U.S. Kearney promotes an environment where employees at all levels freely interact, new hires dive headlong into the action, and employees and clients benefit from professional development incentives. Kearney's employees operate in a collaborative, flexible, and open-minded work environment that promotes and cultivate a positive work-life balance.
