

Kearney & Company Named a "Best Place to Work" by Washington Business Journal

Alexandria, VA – May 8, 2017 – Kearney & Company, P.C. (Kearney) was recently named one of the Best Places to Work by the Washington Business Journal. Kearney has earned this distinction six times and this year marks the 11th year of the Best Places to Work program.

Kearney takes great pride in our ability to provide qualified staff to meet our clients' requirements and believes our people are the lifeblood of our organization. We obtain, train, and retain key employees by selecting the best candidate, compensating him/her well, managing their career with challenging opportunities, improving their skills with continuing education, and personally rewarding excellence in customer service and technical delivery.

To keep the "best and brightest," Kearney has an impressive employee benefits program that is unmatched in the industry. Critical elements such as staff recognition, pay for all hours worked, continuing education, training and development programs, and employee empowerment lend themselves to increased employee satisfaction and productivity with minimal staff turnover.

Retention rates for Kearney are among the highest in the industry. In order to continue this trend and maintain staffing levels, we provide professional growth opportunities for staff by offering challenging and varying responsibilities, promoting within the team, and training and development opportunities to enhance personal and professional value.